

We are pleased to introduce you to the organizational divisions and personnel of the Foxborough Police Department:

Chief's Office:

William D. Baker, Chief of Police

Lt. John Hannon

Lt. Richard Noonan

Lt. Michael Grace

Operations Division:

Operations Division Commander Lt. (Hannon)

This division is staffed by the largest number of employees and in many ways is our most visible and community oriented division comprised of our patrol teams and other specialty officers. We have three patrol teams each led by a police sergeant, including the 12pm to 8am patrol team; the 8am to 4pm patrol team; and the 4pm to 12pm patrol team. Their primary function is to respond to emergency calls for service and during uncommitted patrol time to implement our community policing philosophy through direct engagement with every member of our community and everyone who visits Foxborough.

Administrative Division:

Administrative Division Commander Lt. (Grace)

The administrative division encompasses several important parts of our organization including detectives who investigate all major criminal cases in cooperation with patrol and our external law enforcement partners. This division also relies on our administrative officer to supervise our handling of evidence and property along with a variety of other collateral duties relating to building, fleet and equipment maintenance. This division is also supported by the men and women of our communication division who play a vital role, often as the public's first point of contact, talking people through a variety of life crises, dispatching our patrol force, Fire department and EMS personnel to calls for service, and fielding a wide variety of inquiries from the public. The Administrative Division Commander also oversees our candidate background investigations and our Internal Affairs process to make sure that public complaints are thoroughly investigated and adjudicated in a fair and timely fashion while protecting the due process rights of our employees.

Standards & Training Division:

Standards & Training Division Commander Lt. (Noonan)

The standards and training division is responsible for administering all departmental training; ensuring that our policies and procedures and rules and regulations accurately reflect modern law enforcement best practices; securing law enforcement grants to support our public safety operations; and assisting the Chief's office with oversight of all budget, payroll and personnel matters. The Standards and Training Division Commander is also responsible for all operational planning and staffing for Gillette Stadium and Patriot Place details and events throughout the sports and entertainment season.

There will be a Sergeant assigned to assist this Division Lieutenant on a swing Sergeant's administrative days.

Support Services:

Donna Driscoll and Lee McCarthy provide all of our administrative support services and handle police records, permitting, payroll and many other functions critical to the department's business processes.
